31. Policy Requirements for Recommendation to Cabinet

Mr. S. Shillock, Head of Environmental Health circulated a list which contained the progress and action that had taken place in respect of each of the work programme items that had previously been discussed by the Committee.

Members discussed the work programme items and in particular the Overview of Services for Older People. The Committee was of the opinion that this item should be retained and placed on the Work Programme for 2009-10, and that a report be received on the progress of each item over the past 12 months.

AGREED:

That the Overview of Services for Older People be retained and placed on the Work Programme for 2009-10 and a report be received on each of the areas on the progress made over the past 12 months.
